Interdisciplinary Dialogue Funding - NOW OPEN

We invite participants of this year's inaugural Interdisciplinary Dialogues to join together in submitting 1-2 page seed grant proposals that delve more deeply into one of the four interdisciplinary themes discussed.

Collaboration Consortium Seed Funding Program

Up to $5,000 will be available for one to two proposals from event participants, and selected by event peers, focusing on:

- Topic 1: Consumer behavior & decision-making in resource use
- Topic 2: Human interaction with the environment
- Topic 3: Inequality
- Topic 4: Values unwittingly encoded in future-state models & simulations

Open until June 20: short applications (1-2 pages, including figures) are invited for peer adjudication and funding by the end of June.
